Punjab Assembly polls: BJP-SAD reunite, announce seat-sharing alliance

CHENNAI – 25 Nov, 2026 "The next Punjab Assembly elections, BJP and SAD will contest in alliance," Union Home Minister Amit Shah said on Tuesday (November 24, 2026), announcing the widely anticipated return of Shiromani Akali Dali (SAD) into the National Democratic Alliance (NDA) fold.

"On this occasion of Guru Purab today, NDA's oldest member has returned to the alliance," he added.

"Prime Minister, Badal Sahib, Atal Ji, and Advani Ji have shared a deep relationship for many years. The Bharatiya Janata Party and the Akali Dal also share a very deep relationship."

Responding to a question, Shah said that SAD will play the role of the elder brother in this alliance, as further details on the seat-sharing matrix were not immediately available. However, he was quick to clarify that it is the elder brother who becomes the Chief Minister, indicating that the alliance will front a SAD face for the Chief Ministerial position.
