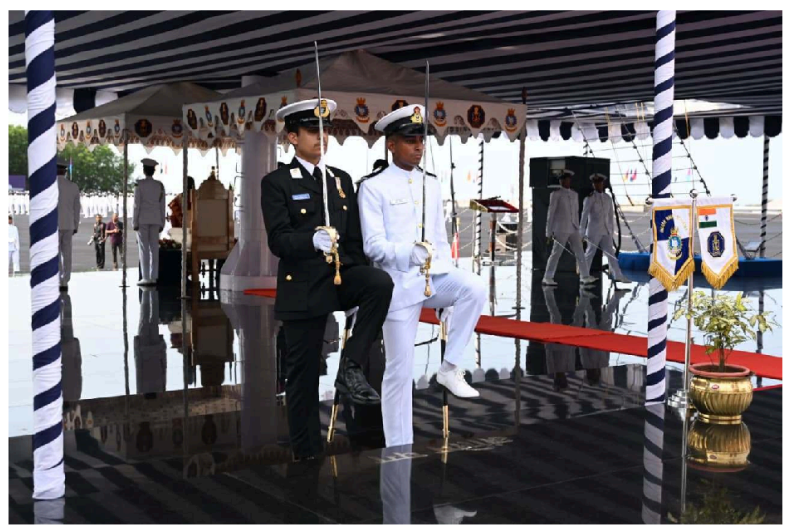
PRESIDENT OF INDIA DROUPADI MURMU REVIEWS PASSING OUT PARADE OF AUTUMN TERM 2026 AT INDIAN NAVAL ACADEMY, EZHIMALA



CHENNAI – 29 Nov, 2026 The Indian Naval Academy (INA), Ezhimala conducted the Passing Out Parade (POP) of Autumn Term 2026 on 28 Nov 2026, marking the culmination of rigorous ab-initio military training of 427 trainees, including 69 women trainees. The ceremonial parade marked a defining transition in the lives of the passing-out trainees as they marched to the 'Antim Pag' – the final step – at the magnificent Pereira Parade Ground. That single step marks the beginning of their commissioned service in the Indian Navy, Indian Coast Guard and maritime forces of friendly foreign countries. The passing out cohort included 18 trainees from Nine Friendly Foreign Countries – Bangladesh, Kenya, Malawi, Maldives Myanmar, Oman, Seychelles, Tanzania and Timor Leste – further strengthening the Academy's role in fostering enduring bonds of friendship and professional camaraderie among maritime forces.
