Kallakurichi MLA-woman officer harassment case in Tamil Nadu: a timeline

KALLAKURICHI – 28 Nov, 2026 Tamil Nadu's Kallakurichi MLA C. Arul Vignesh has been at the centre of a political storm after he was accused of and booked on charges of misbehaving with a woman officer. However, Vignesh, an MLA of the ruling Tamilaga Vettri Kazhagam (TVK) in Tamil Nadu, denied the charges earlier (November 2026). In the latest development in the case, the TVK MLA Arul Vignesh has been arrested by the police.

It is alleged that the TVK MLA sent an inappropriate message to the woman officer and behaved in an indecent manner under the influence of alcohol at her official residence. The issue social media.

Here's a timeline of how the Kallakurichi MLA-woman officer row unfolded, the allegations against the TVK legislator, the Opposition's charges and more about the case that has stirred controversy in a major embarrassment for Chief Minister C. Joseph Vijay-led TVK government that has come to power for the
