Tamil Nadu Government acted against Hindus, says BJP

CHENNAI – 28 Nov, 2026 While hearing contempt petitions over the failure to light the ceremonial Karthigai Deepam on the 'deepathoon' (stone pillar) on Thiruparankundram hill, the Supreme Court observed that the chain of events indicate that the Executive authorities had acted "according to the dictates of their political bosses".

Despite a Supreme Court directive, the Tamil Nadu Government lit the ceremonial lamp at the traditional location on November 24, and not on the 'deepathoon', located near a dargah.

Through a post on X, BJP president Nitin Nabin said the top court's order was a historic victory for every devotee of Lord Murugan. "By ordering the ceremonial lamp to be lit at the Thiruparankundram deepathoon tomorrow [November 28] and pulling up Tamil Nadu authorities for acting at the dictates of their political bosses, the Supreme Court has thoroughly exposed the INDI Alliance government's anti-Sanatan mindset," he said. The Tamilaga Vettri Kazhagam (TVK), led by Tamil Nadu Chief Minister C. Joseph Vijay, is a part of the INDIA bloc.

"No political conspiracy can stop the sacred traditions of Bharat. May the divine blessings of Lord Murugan protect all devotees and guide them on the path of courage and righteousness.
