Delimitation based on latest census will pose a danger to Tamil Nadu: M.K Stalin

CHENNAI – 29 Nov, 2026 DMK president M.K. Stalin justified his party's decision to support the new Constitutional Amendment Bill on delimitation, saying that if the DMK did not support it, the Union government would proceed with delimitation based on the latest Census instead of the 1971 Census, posing a grave danger to Tamil Nadu.

"We approached the Bill with equanimity and foresight. We have prevented that eventuality, and the Bill is now in line with our expectations," he said while addressing a meeting of party MPs at Anna Arivalayam.

Stalin said the DMK had remained firm on its two demands and had succeeded in ensuring that Tamil Nadu's parliamentary representation would remain frozen for another 25 years and its share of 7.18 % would be protected. "We will not compromise on these issues. In 1967, Tamil Nadu lost three seats. Now, we have ensured that we will not lose any seats," he said.

He said that had the DMK not raised its voice, the BJP would have increased the number of seats in the northern States while reducing Tamil Nadu's share.
