INVESTMENT PUSH: CM TO EMBARK ON LONDON VISIT.
VIJAY TO PRESENT TN AS LEADING DESTINATION

Chennai, 11 Sep 2026: Tamil Nadu Chief Minister C. Joseph Vijay will embark on his first overseas visit since assuming office on Thursday, travelling to London as part of the State Government's efforts to attract fresh foreign investments, expand industrial activity and create employment opportunities for the State's youth.

Vijay is scheduled to leave Chennai around 10 p.m. on September 10 on an Emirates flight. He will travel via Dubai before taking a connecting flight to London, where he is expected to remain until September 16.

The Chief Minister's visit assumes significance as Tamil Nadu seeks to strengthen its position as one of India's leading destinations for domestic and international investments. During his stay in London, Vijay will participate in an investors' meeting and hold discussions with representatives of several companies and prospective investors.

The Chief Minister

PARTNERSHIP WITH AGA KHAN DEVELOPMENT NETWORK

Chennai, 11 Sep 2026: The Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi, met His Highness Prince Rahim Aga Khan V, the 50th Imam of the Ismaili Community in New Delhi. During the meeting, Shri Modi fondly recalled the late Aga Khan IV, father of is expected to present Tamil Nadu's industrial strengths and invite global companies to embark on London visit to establish new operations, expand existing facilities and invest in emerging sectors in the State. His interactions with business leaders are likely to focus on the State's infrastructure, skilled workforce, established industrial base, connectivity and investor friendly ecosystem.

Senior State Government officials have already reached London to oversee arrangements for the investors' meeting and facilitate discussions between the Chief Minister and representatives of companies. The officials are also expected to assist in negotiations and work towards formalising proposed investment agreements during the visit.

The overseas trip comes at a time when several Indian States are intensifying their efforts to attract global capital and compete for large investment projects. Tamil Nadu,

The Prime Minister discussed ways to further strengthen the partnership with the Aga Khan Development Network in key areas, including with its diversified manufacturing base and presence of major automobile, electronics, renewable energy, information technology and other industries, is seeking to consolidate its position in the increasingly competitive investment landscape.

The State Government has set an ambitious target of transforming Tamil Nadu into a $1.5 trillion economy by 2036. Attracting substantial domestic and foreign investments, generating new industrial capacity and creating large-scale employment are expected to be central to achieving this longterm economic objective.

The Government has also sought to underline its investment performance since taking office. It had earlier stated that memoranda of understanding were signed with 104 companies during its first 100 days, involving proposed investments worth Rs. 1,02,514 crore. The projects are expected to generate employment for around 1,21,788 people. The London visit is therefore being viewed as an opportunity to build on these investment initiatives and secure further commitments from international companies. The Government is particularly keen to translate investment proposals into actual projects that can generate sustained employment and strengthen the State's industrial economy. Vijay's meetings with investors are expected to highlight Tamil Nadu's availability of skilled manpower and its industrial infrastructure, while also projecting the State as a preferred destination for companies seeking to establish or expand their presence in India.

INTERNATIONAL SPACE SUMMIT IN PARIS, FRANCE

Chennai, 11 Sep 2026: Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi today addressed the International Space Summit held in Paris, France, via Video conference. The Prime Minister thanked President Emmanuel Macron for taking a timely initiative and extending a gracious invitation. He expressed delight in participating in this landmark gathering. "I am happy to be a part of the first International Space Summit," remarked Shri Modi.

Addressing the growing complexity of the cosmic environment, the Prime Minister emphasized that orbits are becoming more crowded, technologies more powerful, and actors more numerous. He stressed that global partnerships must prioritize long-term sustainability over short-term gains. "Our choices must be clear: cooperation over confrontation, sustainability over short-term gain, and inclusion over exclusion," asserted Shri Modi.

Reflecting on humanity's enduring fascination with the cosmos, the Prime Minister observed that space has inspired human imagination for centuries. He highlighted that this frontier now shapes everyday life on Earth, from climate and crops to oceans and communities. "The promise of 2026: If you've spent time in Chennai, you've seen them.

Yellow autos weaving through traffic, kuthu beats playing, and auto annas who seem to know every shortcut in the city.

Or, as Chennai They're more than a way to get around. These iconic autos are a part of what makes Chennai, Chennai.

So, for Colonel Sanders' birthday, KFC took the celebrations out of its restaurants and onto the streets.

This week, Chennaites did a double take as a familiar yellow auto looked like it had somewhere special to be. Decked out in red & birthday lights, decorations, and of course a party hat, it was quite literally a birthday party on wheels.

And riding shotgun? None other than Colonel Sanders himself.

Sporting a checkered lungi, his signature jacket & bow tie, and a pair of statement sunglasses, Colonel was spotted cruising through the city, inviting chicken lovers to his birthday bash at KFC Anna Nagar.

It didn't take long for the auto wearing a party hat to become a head-turner. Curious double takes turned into phone cameras as Chennaites stopped to capture the city's most iconic ride get an even more iconic makeover.

The birthday ride eventually pulled up into KFC Anna Nagar, where fans joined the celebrations, grabbed

GURU SOMASUNDARAM-ANUMOL STARRER PARIS CAFE SET TO HIT SCREENS ON SEPTEMBER 18

Chennai, 11 Sep shaken by an unexpec

2026: The much-awaited emotional romantic drama Paris Cafe, starring Guru Somasundaram and Anumol in the lead roles, is all set to hit cinemas worldwide on September 18, 2026. The film marks the directorial debut of filmmaker Saraj Seelan and explores love, relationships and the unexpected fractures that can alter the course of a family.

The film's trailer, released a few weeks ago, has been receiving an encouraging response from audiences. Earlier, Paris Cafe had created a positive buzz with its teaser, which was unveiled by director Sasikumar on June 5, 2026. Offering a glimpse into the film's world, the teaser heightened curiosity around the story and its characters.

As the title suggests, Paris, France, plays an important role in the narrative. The trailer beautifully captures the picturesque city while complementing the film's emotionally driven storytelling. The blend of romance, family drama and the Parisian backdrop gives the film a distinctive visual and narrative flavour.

With its trailer and songs already out, Paris Cafe promises to take audiences on an emotional journey through love, relationships and the bonds that hold a family together. The film is set to release worldwide in
