

City Express by Marriott Debuts in India with the Opening of Chennai, 13 Oct 2026: City Express by Marriott, part of Marriott Bonvoy's global portfolio of over brands , today announced the opening of City Express by Marriott Udaipur Nathdwara Highway, marking the debut of the City Express by Marriott brand in South Asia.

City Express by Marriott is designed for both business and leisure guests who focus on quality, efficiency and simplicity. Every element of the brand experience is thoughtfully curated to provide convenience, modern comfort, and value.

“India represents an important growth market for Marriott International, and the debut of City Express by Marriott further broadens the range of travel experiences we offer across the country,” said Cristiano Rinaldi, Chief Lodging

Officer, Asia Pacific excluding China, Marriott International. “Built around quality, simplicity and value, the brand responds to the needs of today’s travelers with modern comforts and an efficient stay experience. We look forward to bringing this distinctive proposition to more guests as we expand the brand across the region.”

“Bringing City Express by Marriott to India is a significant step in our continued expansion strategy and proudly marks the introduction of our 22 nd brand in the country. India continues to present tremendous opportunities across every travel segment, and the introduction of City Express by Marriott reflects our commitment to offer ing the right brand, in the right destination, for varied traveler needs”, said Kiran Andicot, Senior Vice President – South Asia, Marriott International. “As demand continues to grow beyond gateway cities, this brand strengthens our ability to serve value-conscious guests seek ing quality, reliability and comfort, while further expanding Marriott Bonvoy’s portfolio across emerg ing markets and high-g rowth travel corridors.”

Strategically located along the Udaipur–Nathdwara Highway (NH-58), the hotel offers convenient access to Nathdwara, one of Rajasthan’s most revered pilgrimage destinations, while serving as a comfortable and efficient base for travelers visiting Udaipur and the surrounding region. The hotel is approximately 35 kms from Udaipur’s Maharana Pratap Airport and 30 kms from Udaipur Railway Station. The city center is within easy reach along with historic attractions such as the City Palace, picturesque lakes, Eklingji, Delwara and Haldighati are accessible to guests.

