

7th Edition of Diplomatic Premier League and First-Ever Pickleball Tournament Exclusively for Diplomats Inaugurated in Chennai

Chennai, 13 Oct

(DPL), along with the first-ever pickleball tournament exclusively organised for diplomats, was inaugurated in Chennai. The initiative promotes sports, international friendship and cultural exchange by bringing together members of the diplomatic community on a common Chennai, 13 Oct sporting platform.

The inauguration was attended by Dr. Yashwanth, Honorary Consul of El Salvador and Co-founder of the Diplomatic Premier League; Mr. Christophe, Deputy Consul General of France; Mr. Noble, Deputy Consul General of Australia; Mr. Vinod, Honorary Consul of Uganda; and Mr. Vallan, Chief of the United Nations High Commissioner for panties, making period Refugees (UNHCR) in the Tamil Nadu region.

The introduction of the exclusive pickle ball tournament marks a key highlight of this edition, offering diplomats a new sporting opportunity to build camaraderie and strengthen professional and personal relationships. The DPL continues to use sports as a platform to foster mutual understanding, cross-cultural engagement and international cooperation beyond formal diplomatic interactions.
