

Love Is in the Air as Arya's 'Hello Kaadhal' Teaser Drops; Theatrical Release on December 4

Chennai, 15 Oct 2026: Directed by 'Pranaya Vilasam' fame Nikhil Muraly, the film marks Arya's 40th outing as a lead actor and features Nikhila Vimal and Vaishnavi Chaitanya in pivotal roles.

The teaser of Hello Kaadhal, starring Arya, is out now, offering a glimpse into the romantic world of the upcoming entertainer, which is all set to arrive in cinemas on December 4, 2026. Marking Arya's 40th film as a lead actor, the project brings together an exciting combination of talent, with filmmaker Nikhil Muraly, known for Pranaya Vilasam, at the helm. The film also stars Nikhila Vimal and Vaishnavi Chaitanya in pivotal roles, adding to the anticipation surrounding this romantic entertainer.

The makers first announced the project last year, coinciding with Arya's birthday, with the intriguing caption, "Love takes its first step." Since then, the film has generated interest among audiences eager to see Arya in a new romantic avatar. With the teaser now unveiled, Hello Kaadhal offers a fresh glimpse into the film's world as the count down to its theatrical release begins.

The film reunites director Nikhil Muraly with writers Sunu A.V. and Jyothish M., the team behind Pranaya Vilasam. Filmmaker Halitha Shameem has also joined the writing team, handling the dialogues and additional screenplay. Her involvement adds another interesting dimension to the project's creative collaboration.

Music for Hello Kaadhal is composed by G.V. Prakash Kumar, whose music is expected to be an integral part of the film's romantic appeal. On the technical front, the film features cinematography by Jeeva Sankar, editing by Binu Napoleon, art direction by A.R. Mohan, and action choreography by Stunt Silva. The principal photography was wrapped up in June 2026, and the film is currently in post-production.

Produced by Arya and Sayyeshaa under their banner The Show People, along with Kishore T., Hello Kaadhal brings together an accomplished team for a romance-driven theatrical outing. With its teaser now out and the release date locked, the film is gearing up to meet audiences in cinemas on December 4, 2026.
