

Glenfiddich Partners with Designer Rajesh Pratap Singh for Luxury Festive Gifting

Chennai, 23 Oct 2026: Glenfiddich, the pioneering single malt Scotch whisky brand, has partnered with celebrated Indian designer Rajesh Pratap Singh to launch a limited-edition festive gifting collection across its 12, 15 and 18-Year-Old expressions in India. The collection features specially designed accessories, including pocket squares, a stag brooch and a button set, combining the brand's craftsmanship with contemporary design.

The collaboration celebrates a shared commitment to precision, creativity and heritage, with festive packaging featuring Glenfiddich's iconic stag and distillery imagery alongside gold motifs. The collection aims to elevate traditional gifting by bringing together luxury, personal style and thoughtful design.

Kartik Mohindra, Managing Director, William Grant & Sons India, said the collaboration reflects Glenfiddich's pioneering spirit and commitment to craftsmanship, extending the brand experience beyond the whisky itself. The collection is available in Gurgaon, Mumbai and Bengaluru, with prices ranging from ₹3,200 to ₹17,000, depending on the expression and city.
