"'Cycle Gap' Is a Beautiful Blend of Nostalgia and Contemporary Romance" – Actress Sherry Agarwal

Chennai, 31 Oct 2026: Actress Sherry Agarwal is steadily expanding her presence across the Indian entertainment industry, with projects spanning Telugu, Punjabi, Hindi and Kannada cinema, and now Tamil. Her Tamil debut, Cycle Gap, is an emotional musical romance that seeks to bridge the innocence and nostalgia of 1990s love with the emotions and sensibilities of today's generation. Blending music, romance and relatable human emotions, the film aims to bring two generation sof romantic sensibilities together in a story that evokes the past while speaking to contem porary audiences. Produced by Tubelight P roductions and directed by M. R. Bharathi, the film features Sherry alongside producer and lead actor Nawaz.

Sharing her experience on working in 'Cycle Gap', Sherry says, "As an actress, I can honestly say that my experience working on Cycle Gap was amazing and memorable. The entire team was extremely supportive, and that positive environment made the shoot a very enjoyable learning experience for me. I am thankful to everyone who contributed their time, effort and talent to this film. I would genuinely love to work with this wonderful team again in the future. I wish Tubelight Productions, Producer and Hero Nawaz, Director M. R. Bharathi Sir, DOP Solomon Sir, Hemanth Selvaraj Sir, Executive Producer Suja Suriya Nila, and the entire team of Cycle Gap the very best. I hope the audience receives the film with the same love and enthusiasm with which all of us have worked on it."

Beyond Cycle Gap, Sherry's screen credits include the Telugu films April 28th Em Jarigindi?, Ram Asur and I Hate You. She is also associated with the upcoming Telugu project Enthavaaru gaani, whose teaser has been released, and the Kannada film Akarshita. Her listed projects further include the Hindi titles Kaushiki and IPS Dubey, along with the Te lugu project Benaami. Her work extends beyond feature films to the Punjabi web series RANGE, which was released on Chaupal and is also available on YouTube, as well as music videos in Punjabi and Hindi for labels and productions including T-Series, Zee Music and Red Ribbon Musik.
