WHEN ‘CANCER-FREE’ ISN’T THE END OF THE CONVERSATION: WHY RECURRENCE RISK MATTERS IN EARLY BREAST CANCER

Chennai, 31 Oct 2026: Imagine a woman who has completed treatment for early breast cancer. Her surgery is behind her, she has finished the treatment recommended by her doctor, and her follow-up appointments bring reassuring news. Gradually, she begins returning to her usual routines, making plans and looking ahead. But one question remains: does finishing treatment mean the cancer can never return?

For many women, this is an important part of the conversation that follows an early breast cancer diagnosis. Although completing treatment is a significant milestone, the risk of recurrence can persist, sometimes for years.

Here are five important considerations for women navigating life after an early breast cancer diagnosis.

HYATT AND SARACA HOTELS & RESORTS ANNOUNCE PLANS FOR FOUR HOTELS ACROSS NORTH INDIA

Chicago, 31 Oct 2026: Hyatt Hotels Corporation (NYSE: H) today announced the signing of agreements with Saraca Hotels & Resorts, founded by Mohammad Abdullah, to bring a portfolio of four Hyatt branded hotels across Uttar Pradesh and Uttarakhand in India.

The collaboration will introduce the Unscripted by Hyatt brand to India through the addition of Saraca Hotel Lucknow and Saraca Resort

& Spa Corbett, while further strengthening Hyatt’s regional footprint with plans for two new hotels near Jim Corbett National Park under tions for women navigating life after an early breast cancer diagnosis.

Many people associate cancer recurrence with the period immediately after treatment. However, recurrence can happen years later. This is particularly relevant for certain types of hormone receptor-positive breast cancer, where the risk can persist over an extended period.

Depending on the diagnosis, treatment may aim to remove the tumour, address cancer cells that may remain in the body and lower the likelihood of the disease returning.

However, recurrence can sometimes occur even after successful initial treatment. It may develop in the breast or nearby tissue, or in another part of the body. The risk varies considerably between individuals and depends on various factors.

4. Quality of life is ences.

"India remains one of Hyatt's most important growth markets globally, and we continue to see strong opportunities in destinations that offer distinctive experiences and a deep connection to culture and community," said Vikas Chawla, President, India & Southwest Asia, Hyatt.

The collaboration reflects a shared vision between Hyatt and Saraca Hotels & Resorts to create hospitality experiences rooted in authenticity, culture and a strong sense of place. It also supports Hyatt's continued brand growth in destinations that appeal to both domestic and international travelers seeking meaningful and immersive experiences.

KARVIYAM FAMILY MART UNIFIES RETAIL OPERATIONS AND CUSTOMER ENGAGEMENT WITH FYND

Chennai, 31 Oct 2026: Fynd, an AI-native retail technology company, today announced that Karviyam Family Mart has adopted Fynd’s commerce solutions to connect its warehouse and store operations with checkout and customer engagement. The deployment brings together Fynd StoreOS, warehouse management, loyalty and in-store promotions, taking technology beyond the billing counter and into day-to-day running of the business.

With merchandise personally sourced by its founder from across India, Karviyam was building its assortment alongside the store itself. Each product needed a digital record covering pricing, tax information, vendor details, labels and inventory.

UBER REVEALS NEW FEATURES FOR ITS 20 LAKH+ EARNERS IN INDIA

Chennai, 31 Oct 2026: Uber today unveiled a suite of driver-first innovations at the third edition of Uber Pragati, aimed at making earning on its platform easier, safer and more rewarding. The initiatives span more flexible ways to earn, new income opportunities and stronger safety features when drivers are behind the wheel. Uber also showcased the real-world impact of its unmatched safety technology, including ambulance assistance in emergencies and in-app encrypted video recordings that have helped establish facts in disputed incidents.

Aditya Kapoor, Director – Supply Operations, Uber India & South Asia, said, “Our ambition is to continue being the platform of choice for flexible earning opportunities in India. That means giving drivers the freedom to work on their own terms, the confidence of industry-leading safety protections and more ways to earn. We want to continue setting the benchmark for what drivers should expect from a platform.”

Key enhancements based on driver feedback:

HDFC ERGO IMPLEMENTS PMFBY FOR FARMERS IN RANIPET AND CUDDALORE FOR SPECIAL SEASON 2026-27

Ranipeti, 31 Oct 2026: HDFC ERGO General Insurance Company has been authorised by the Government of Tamil Nadu to implement the Pradhan Mantri Fasal Bima Yojana (PMF BY) for loanee and non-loanee farmers in Ranipet and Cuddalore districts for the Special Season 2026–27. The

Easier: More flexibility, less hassle
Flexible Drive Pass | Industry-first
Uber offers drivers maximum choice through subscription passes ranging from just six hours to 180 days, catering to the needs of both part-time and full-time drivers.

Quick start | Industry-first in ride-hailing space
Drivers can now join Uber seamlessly through WhatsApp, making onboarding simpler and more convenient through a chat app they already use every day.

With ‘Earn First, Pay Later’, unlike pay-first models on other platforms, Uber allows eligible drivers to continue taking cash trips even when their balance runs out, within an additional credit limit, reducing interruptions to their working day. Given the preference for audio over text, Uber drivers can now communicate with the riders through Voice Notes in Uber's in-app chat.

Safer: From innovation to real-world impact

Ambulance Assistance | Industry-first in ride-hailing space scheme covers paddy, cotton and maize crops, with sum insured amounts and farmer premiums varying by crop.

The scheme provides insurance protection against crop losses caused by natural calamities, including droughts, floods, cyclones, hailstorms, pest attacks Accessible through Uber's 24×7 Safety Line in partnership with Dial 4242, Uber now facilitates ambulance assistance. It was pressed into service on 25 occasions in less than four months, helping riders and drivers access timely medical support following accidents.

Record My Ride | Industry-first
The encrypted video-recording feature takes guess work out of what happens during a ride. It has already helped clarify a disputed incident involving a rider and driver, with the recording assisting police in establishing the facts.

More Rewarding: Expanding earning opportunities
More ways to earn for Bike drivers

Uber is expanding earning opportunities beyond conventional bike trips. Bike Inter city enables shorter trips between neighbouring towns and cities, including routes such as Delhi-Meerut. With Uber Direct, bike drivers can also fulfill delivery orders for businesses, while Uber Parcel enables them to deliver personal packages within cities.

Uber Pet creates another earning opportunity for participating car drivers, enabling them to welcome riders travelling with their pets. Uber's Refer & Earn programme also rewards drivers for bringing new earners onto the platform.

and diseases. It covers different stages of cultivation, from pre-sowing to harvesting and post-harvest risks. The crop-specific enrolment deadlines are October 31 and November 16, 2026.

MONTRA ELECTRIC EXPANDS ITS COMMERCIAL EV FOOTPRINT THROUGH VFRTY’S ON-DEMAND PLATFORM

Chennai, 31 Oct 2026: Montra Electric, India's full-spectrum electric commercial vehicle brand, today partnered with VFRTY, a Chennai-based technology platform for on-demand commercial vehicle bookings, as the company officially launched its logistics marketplace and flagged off a new fleet of electric cargo vehicles in the city.

Designed to bring the convenience of app-based ride-hailing to the commercial transportation sector, VFRTY enables customers to book a wide range of cargo vehicles, from small last-mile carriers to larger commercial trucks, through a single digital platform. Beyond booking, VFRTY uses GPS, SIM-based and FASTag tracking, AI-enabled monitoring and real-time alerts to give businesses greater visibility over their shipments and help them respond to delays more effectively. By bringing vehicle access, pricing and tracking together, the platform aims to make commercial transportation easier to manage, more transparent and more efficient.

The partnership brings together two Chennai-based companies with a shared ambition to modernise urban logistics through technology and sustainable mobility. While VFRTY is focused on making commercial transportation more accessible, transparent and efficient through its digital platform, Montra Electric is enabling that vision through purpose-built electric commercial vehicles designed for the evolving needs of urban and intra-city freight movement.
