Bharat Parv 2026 Showcases India's Rich Cultural Heritage and Diversity at Ekta Nagar, Gujarat

CHENNAI – 12 Nov, 2026 Bharat Parv 2026, organised by the Ministry of Tourism, Government of India, in partnership with Gujarat Tourism and with the support of States and Union Territories, is underway at Ekta Nagar, Gujarat, celebrating India's rich cultural heritage, vibrant traditions and diversity under the unifying theme of 'Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat'. The festival was inaugurated by Prime Minister Narendra Modi on 30 October 2026, as part of the celebrations of Rashtriya Ekta Diwas, and will continue till 15 November 2026.

The festival brings together traditional arts, handicrafts, regional cuisines, folk traditions, music, dance and indigenous craftsmanship from across the country, offering visitors an opportunity to experience India's cultural diversity at one destination.
