A Little Spice, A Little Sweetness, A Beautiful Blend of Relationships Lyca Productions, led

CHENNAI – 13 Nov, 2026 A Little Spice, A Little Sweetness, A Beautiful Blend of Relationships Lyca Productions, led by Subaskaran, presents Inji Vellam, directed by Mani Ratnam. The film arrives in cinemas worldwide on January 29, 2027 One of the most anticipated cinematic collaborations is finally set to meet audiences, as the makers of Inji Vellamofficially announce its worldwide theatrical release on January 29, 2027. Presented by Lyca Productions' Subaskaran and directed by acclaimed filmmaker Mani Ratnam, the film brings together two creative powerhouses whose association has previously delivered landmark cinematic successes, including the Ponniyin Selvan franchise. This time, they reunite for a feel-good romantic drama featuring Makkal Selvan Vijay Sethupathi and Sai Pallavi in the lead roles. A filmmaker whose body of work has consistently inspired many aspiring filmmakers and cinema lovers, Mani Ratnam continues to command immense anticipation with every new project. Known for his distinctive storytelling sensibility and meticulous approach to filmmaking, he has also earned the confidence of producers through his disciplined production schedules. With filming now wrapped, Inji Vellam has entered its post-production phase, with work progressing at full pace ahead of its theatrical debut. The film also features Kannada actress Chaitra Achar, who has steadily established herself as a promising talent through her performances across multilingual cinema. Her filmography includes acclaimed projects such as Sapta Saagaradaache Ello Side B, alongside Meesaya Murukku 2, 3BHK and Room No. 418. Adding to the anticipation is the film's music, composed by Academy Award-winningA.R. Rahman. The recently unveiled bit track with glimpse, which offers a dive into the film's aesthetic portrayal of Kolkata, has already drawn attention for its evocative visuals and musical appeal. The response has further heightened expectations surrounding the complete soundtrack, with audiences eagerly looking forward to experiencing the album in its entirety. Further announcements regarding the film's first single, audio launch and trailer release are expected from the makers in the coming days.
