Allu Sneha Reddy Joins Baoli Art Sangam as Chairperson – Culture & Heritage A

CHENNAI – 13 Nov, 2026 Allu Sneha Reddy Joins Baoli Art Sangam as Chairperson – Culture & Heritage A new chapter in celebrating India's art, culture and heritage Allu Sneha Reddy has joined Baoli Art Sangam, India's First Stepwell Art Biennale, as Chairperson – Culture & Heritage, marking a significant new association with India's artistic and cultural landscape. Known for her distinctive sense of style and appreciation for art and culture, Sneha Reddy's association brings a fresh perspective to an initiative dedicated to celebrating India's rich heritage. Baoli Art Sangam seeks to bring renewed attention to India's historic stepwells, highlighting their architectural brilliance, cultural significance and the timeless relationship between water, art and civilisation. Through this association, Sneha Reddy will be part of an initiative that aims to celebrate India's artistic legacy while encouraging greater appreciation for its cultural roots and heritage. Baoli Art Sangam will take place from December 1, 2026, to January 10, 2027, bringing together art, culture and heritage in a unique celebration of India's legacy.
