Ministry of Culture Convenes "Creative India: Collective Possibilities" at Bharat Mandapam, New Delhi

CHENNAI – 14 Nov, 2026 Ministry of Culture Convenes "Creative India: Collective Possibilities" at Bharat Mandapam, New Delhi; Invites Partners to Build India's Creative Economy Together.

The Ministry of Culture, Government of India, today organised " Creative India: Collective Possibilities ", a conference on collaborative models for India's creative economy, at Bharat Mandapam, New Delhi. Inaugurated by Gajendra Singh Shekhawat, Union Minister for Culture, the Conclave brought together representatives of the Central and State Governments, the Ministry's institutions, industry, philanthropy, the creative community and international partners, to explore how India's cultural wealth can contribute more fully to growth, livelihoods and India's place in the world.

" The creative power of India is its real power," said Gajendra Singh Shekhawat. "Ours is a living civilisation, whose creativity belongs to every region and every generation. As the world turns to an economy of ideas and imagination, our task is to connect this talent with opportunity, so that India's culture becomes a foundation of its prosperity and of its voice in the world."
