Young actor Ajith Vignesh, who attracted attention in the film Black Gold – a new journey as a hero in subsequent films!

CHENNAI – 15 Nov, 2026 Young actor Ajith Vignesh, who is dreaming of making a mark for himself in the Tamil film industry, has caught the attention of fans and the film industry with the recently released film 'Black Gold'. Playing the villain in the film, he is receiving praise for his unique performance in a role that is equally important to the protagonist. In particular, his appearance and performance on screen have attracted a lot of attention from the fans.

Ajith Vignesh from Madurai has been interested in cinema since his college days. After completing his civil engineering studies at Sri Sairam College of Engineering in Chennai, he started his journey in the film industry to fulfill his dream of cinema. Along with acting, he also trained in martial arts including Silambam and boxing, and also took up acting properly. He accepted the small opportunities he got in the beginning without hesitation and continued to try to prove his talent. As a result, he has acted in more than 40 to 50 short films so far.

Ajith Vignesh, who honed his acting skills in short films, got a chance to act in the Vijay-starrer 'Bigil'. That opportunity, which came through the late actor Vivek, marked an important beginning in his film journey. Vivek, who appreciated Ajith Vignesh's performance, gave him the opportunity to act in the film 'Bigil'. He also acted in the web series 'Tamil Rockers' and has now made his presence felt in a strong role through the film 'Black Gold'. He says that director Vetrimaaran's words, who praised his performance in the film 'Bigil', were also a great encouragement to him.

Regarding his film journey, Ajith Vignesh said, “I have been interested in cinema since my college days. That is why I came to Chennai. Even though I got small opportunities in the film industry initially, I accepted them happily and thought that I should do well in every opportunity. That is why I started acting in short films. After that, I got the opportunity to act in the film ‘Bigil’ through the late actor Vivek sir. He appreciated my performance and gave me that opportunity. Vetrimaaran sir also appreciated my performance in that film, which gave me a huge boost. My film journey, which started with the film ‘Bigil’, has now reached the next level with the film ‘Black Gold’ following the ‘Tamil Rockers’ series. It gives me great joy that many people recognize and appreciate me,” he said.

He further said, “My desire is to create a unique space for myself by acting in many more great roles in the film industry. I have currently signed two films as the lead. Official announcements about those films will be made soon. I am ready to act in any kind of role, no matter what it is. I am looking forward to good stories and challenging roles.”

Starting with short films, Ajith Vignesh has been gradually expanding his journey with 'Bigil', 'Tamil Rockers' and 'Black Gold' and is now ready to start a new chapter as a hero. Having attracted attention for his villain role, there is an expectation as to what kind of stories he will act in as a hero next. Ajith Vignesh, who is on his way to carve a place for himself in the film industry with his perseverance and acting skills, will soon be announced about his next films.
